While copies of this finding aid are included with the microfilmed copies, Reese Library holds the only print copies of the Calendar. October 8th launches a digital copy of Mrs. Cashin's calendar on the Special Collections web page. The digitization of the calendar will aid patrons world-wide in requesting copies of these letters through inter-library loan.

In celebration of the launch and Georgia Archives Month, Mr. Herbert Hartsook, a nationally known expert on the acquisition, processing and reference of archival material, will lecture on the importance of finding aids in using archival material on October 8th.
