PUBLICATIONS REPORTS

Provenance
Editor Cheryl Oestreicher was unable to attend but submitted a written report. She is finishing the process of reprinting Provenance for members who did not receive the last issue. Amanda Pellerin is confirming addresses. Cheryl has received seven submissions for the next issue and has completed reviews for all but two; author revisions are expected by the end of August. She is continuing work on creating access to digital copies of previous editions.

The Provenance sub-committee (Cheryl Oestreicher, Christine Wiseman, and Amanda Pellerin) has received a mock-up of the Provenance website; Bepress is preparing the full site. The committee has contacted volunteers who are interested in adding metadata for past issues after the website is completed. They will create procedures for the metadata project, begin uploading articles and assigning metadata, and email the membership when the site is ready for use.

Newsletter

Editor Joshua Kitchens was not present but provided a report. The summer issue will be ready this weekend. There were problems with a couple of the columns, but the material will be in the fall issue. Joshua is waiting on one advertiser who has not yet paid for advertising space for the year.

Website

Website Manager Kevin Fleming was present. He has created an intranet for the Board and committees, added a new Budget page which is visible to members after login, added an image and blurb from the current newsletter to the homepage, and used Flickr images to add photos to other pages. He has posted jobs to the Jobs page and added calendar events as they have been submitted. When necessary, he has helped Board and committee members update their own content and has provided troubleshooting and maintenance.

Listserv

Listserv Manager Brittany Parris was not present but submitted a report. She has been working on policies for email retention and categorization and encouraged Board members to review SGA’s Records Retention Schedule online. She suggested that emails scheduled as records for retention AND those that would be helpful to succeeding officers/committee chairs be retained. She would appreciate feedback on this topic as she is in the early stages of this project.

Subscriptions Manager

Subscriptions Manager Amanda Pellerin was present and provided an update on her work. She has been sorting out the Provenance mailing troubles with members who did not receive the last issue and working with subscription agents on Vol. 30, 2012. She is in the process of moving her Access database into Wild Apricot and is working with the Provenance sub-committee on files and metadata for the Bepress site.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Georgia Archives Month Liaisons

Georgia Archives Month Co-Chair and Liaison Tamara Livingston was present. Facebook has been the primary method of sharing information this year. The Bartow History Museum is the featured institution; next year there will be an application process for the Spotlight Grant Award. The BHM was highlighted with “did you know” facts on GAM Save the Date cards, an article in the newsletter, a publicity grant for their October event, and an SGA member tour of the museum.

Save the Date cards, were printed, and flyers and a poster were made available online. The total budget is $1287.15, and all donations have come in except for one from Walter Hopkins. Tamara will follow up with him. The committee is standardizing letters and forms and hopes to present a more formal sponsorship arrangement next year including logos on the GAM page of the SGA website and clarified sponsor benefits.

Education

Education Committee Chair Michael Law was present and presented a report. The committee held a successful DAS “Inreach/Outreach” class at UGA on June 15 and is planning a DAS “Basic Electronic Records” course for the pre-conference workshop on Nov. 7. SAA offers a complimentary registration to an attendee, and there was discussion about whether this might be used for the scholarship recipient. Michael is in conversation with Richard Pearce-Moses about a possible September workshop; Christine Wiseman offered the use of space at the Georgia Archives if needed. UGA was also mentioned as a possible venue. Potential topics include DACS, basic processing, and Archivists’ Toolkit.

Membership
Membership Committee Chair Lynette Stoudt attended the meeting and provided a report. The committee held a summer tour of the new UGA special collections building and picked up a new SGA member who joined because of the tour! They have submitted newsletter articles on the spring and summer tours, forwarded tour photos to the Outreach Manager, partnered with the GAM committee to plan a tour of the Bartow History Museum in October, prepared for SGA happy hour at SAA, and sent out sixteen new member packets.

Upcoming plans include sending emails to faculty and students in archival programs advertising the Annual Meeting, recruiting for and staffing new member/first-time attendee events and the registration table at the meeting, and preparing 2013 committee sign-up sheets. Reminder: SGA happy hour at SAA is 6:30-7:30pm, Weds., Aug. 8 at FLOAT rooftop bar at the Hard Rock Hotel. Office hours are 5:30-6:30pm, Thurs., Aug. 9 during the opening reception.

She will present the Fellow nominations to the Executive Board for approval at the end of the meeting. The committee is putting together a slate of candidates for the 2013 election and will recognize the Fellows during the Annual Meeting Reception.

The Program and Local Arrangement Committees are finalizing session locations and technology needs, confirming space needs/times for the Mentor/Mentee Meet and Greet and the Fellows gathering, and confirming leaders for round table sessions. SGA speakers will be offered a discount for registration this year. A Poster Session sub-committee (Deborah Davis and Fred Mobley) has distributed a call for posters and will accept a maximum of ten entries. Mandy Mastrovita designed the postcards for the Annual Meeting. 250 will be distributed during SAA, and additional cards will be mailed to members and a shortened GAM list. Paul will provide additional information next week, but hotel registration is open ($99 single/$150 double) and will end on Sept. 19. The meeting is a little over budget, but Paul was not concerned at this point. Sara Saunders is investigating island tours on Wednesday.

She and Sarah Quigley have updated the Legislative Advocacy section of the website with practical ideas and have outlined updates for the Professional Advocacy section. They have drafted a thank-you letter to Senator Jason Carter, assisted the Friends of Georgia Archives with an informational packet, uploaded items to Flickr and Facebook, contacted communications professionals to pitch story ideas on the Georgia Archives and SGA, and consulted on a President’s Award submission. Courtney will help distribute Annual Meeting postcards, pencils, brochures, and candy at SAA.
