about the scholarship

The scholarship will cover an amount equal to the noncredit tuition for the Institute, but not to exceed $500, and a year's membership in the Society of Georgia Archivists. Please note that individuals must apply separately to the Georgia Archives Institute by March 15th, 2020 and pay the application fee to the Georgia Archives Institute. After participating in the Georgia Archives Institute, the recipient will submit a brief article on the experience for use in the SGA Newsletter.

Answer the questions on the three pages that follow. Make sure to answer all questions in all six sections that follow, writing “Not applicable” or “N/A” for those questions that do not apply to you. Attach additional pages as needed.

You may mail your answers, along with your cover letter and your CV or resume, to the below “snail mail” address. However, please note that applicants are strongly discouraged from mailing in applications. Rather, SGA encourages applicants to either (1) submit your application using the provided google form on SGA’s Carol Hart Scholarship page or (2) e-mail applications (to the address below) in order to avoid problems with postal delivery such as loss of materials or delayed receipt.
