III. CONDITIONS:

- * The purchase of a reproduction of a work does not in itself carry the right to publish, quote, broadcast, exhibit or perform that work. Permissions to use unique or unpublished materials held by MARBL in these ways must be requested in writing. The applicant agrees to abide by the terms and conditions established by MARBL.
- * If the work is still under copyright, and if the copyright is not held by Emory University, the requestor must seek permission from the current copyright holder. The applicant agrees to assume full responsibility and any attendant liability for complying with U.S. copyright laws and other rights of third parties, and agrees to hold MARBL harmless from and against all damages and claims.
- * Permission is for a one-time use only with nonexclusive worldwide rights in all languages in the medium and format stated in this application. Permission is valid only for the individual, company or institution to whom it is specifically issued and may not be transferred, assigned, sold or otherwise disposed of without written permission from MARBL.
- * Commercial applicants must pay the publication fee(s) in advance of receiving written permission to publish. (See Section V on the reverse)
- * The applicant agrees to credit all works as follows: [identification of items, title of collection,] Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library, Emory University
- * If permission to publish is granted, the applicant agrees to donate a copy of the publication to the Robert W. Woodruff Library at Emory University.
- * MARBL reserves the right to refuse to grant permission to publish.
