Please make a reproduction, in the form indicated, of the material described on the reverse and on additional sheets, if any. I understand that, in accepting this service, I am bound by the following agreement:

1. MARBL reserves the right to set limits on the amount of copying it will undertake.
2. Researchers may not make their own copies or photograph MARBL materials. They may not bring scanners, digital cameras, video recorders or other duplication devices into the reading room. All reproductions will be made by MARBL's staff.
3. Reproduction of library materials will be made by MARBL for use only in research and private study by the applicant (except as noted below). Copies supplied may not be reproduced in full or in part. The applicant, without prior written consent of MARBL, may not place them at other repositories.
4. Only one copy will be made of any portion of a copyrighted work (including manuscripts material).
5. Excerpts from copyrighted materials may not be quoted by the applicant in his or her own work or elsewhere without permission of the copyright holder, except as allowed under the fair use guidelines of the copyright law (Title 17, USC). Reproduction of complete unpublished or copyrighted published works (whether in an article, book, film, website, etc.) requires the permission the copyright holder. The applicant is responsible for obtaining this permission prior to publication. In addition, if the applicant wishes to publish from manuscript materials held in MARBL, permission must also be secured from the Coordinator of Research Services. If the applicant wishes to publish from materials in the University Archives, permission to publish must be secured from the University Archivist. For commercial uses, an additional fee will be charged for each item used. Advance payment of publication fees is required. Applicant understands that certain uses may be subject to additional restrictions.
6. Proper acknowledgement shall be given for all materials used. In citing manuscript and archives materials located in this Library, the format is as follows: [identification of items, title of collection,] Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library, Emory University.
7. The applicant agrees to pay the full cost of copies ordered, including labor charges, postage and handling, and other charges as applicable.
8. The applicant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Emory University, its officers, employees and agents from and against all suits, claims, actions and expenses arising out of the use of reproductions provided by MARBL.

NOTICE WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified by the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order, if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve a violation of copyright law.
