

Georgia Archives Month: Oct. 2021

A Salute to Medicine

A celebration of the medical profession and the archives that document the field

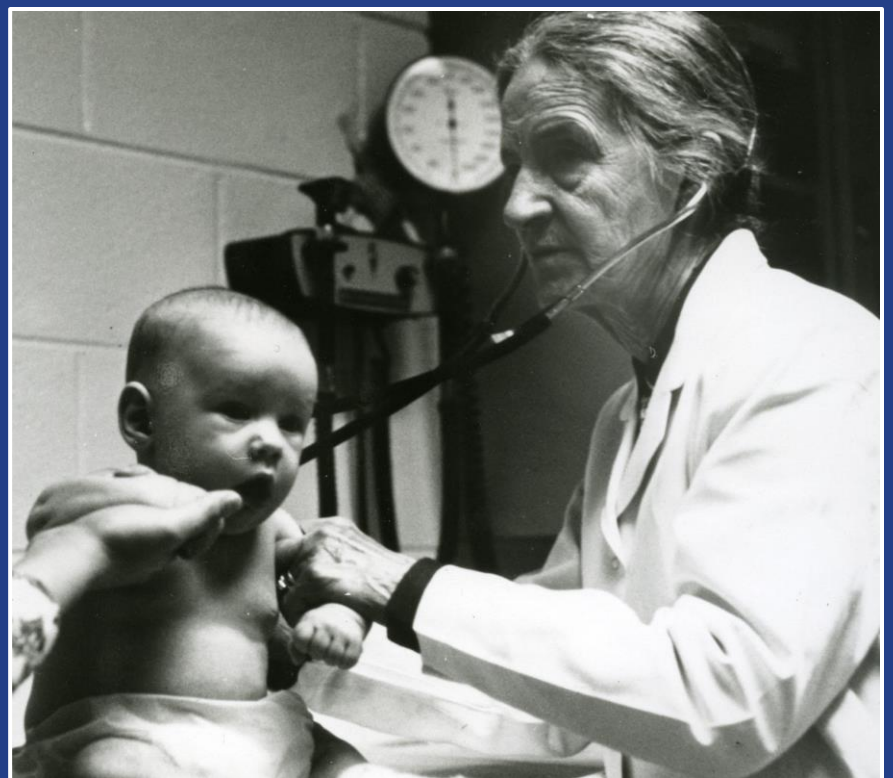

Grady Memorial Hospital Schools of Nursing publication, ca. 1940s-1950s.

Clayton State dental hygiene students earn clinical hours serving patients at the free dental clinic on campus.

Saint Joseph Infirmary, staffed by Sisters of Mercy.

Dr. Leila Denmark with an infant patient at the Baby Clinic of the Central Presbyterian Church in Atlanta, Georgia.

First aid bandages drawn by Lilliemae Greatheart, Nov. 18, 1921.

   @GAArchivesMonth

Learn more about Georgia Archives Month: bit.ly/GAArchivesMonth

UL: L1984-47_008, Grady Hospital School of Nursing records, Southern Labor Archives, Special Collections & Archives, Georgia State University Library.

LL: Saint Joseph Hospital Photograph Collection. Office of Archives and Records, Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Atlanta, GA.
UR: Box 12, Folder 11, Clayton State Audiovisual Photograph Collection, Clayton State University Library Archives and Special Collections, Clayton State University Library, Morrow, GA

CR: Atlanta History Photograph Collection, VIS 170, Kenan Research Center at the Atlanta History Center.

LR: Record Series 1121-115, Lilliemae Greatheart Howard family papers, Item 1121-115-0002_006-0001. City of Savannah Municipal Archives.

 sga
SOCIETY OF GEORGIA
ARCHIVISTS