- We are celebrating Georgia Archives Month! This year's theme is Archives Documenting Times of Crisis. Archives serve to document and preserve important moments in our history, providing proof that events occurred and context as to how they happened. Check out our collections related to this year's #GAarchivesmonth theme:
- Archives and libraries exist to preserve history and promote access to materials. We have worked to digitize our collections so that you may enjoy them outside of the physical space of the archives! You can celebrate #GAarchivesmonth virtually this year by viewing our collections online:
